Misa en honor a Cesar E. Chávez
Viernes, 31 de Marzo a las 7:00 a.m.
Parroquia de Inmaculada Concepción

Entre los años de 1960 a 1980 del siglo pasado un joven campesino mexicano americano inicio la lucha por la defensa de los trabajadores agrícolas en el estado de California bajo el amparo y protección de Santa María de Guadalupe, imagen impresa en un estandarte que lo habría de acompañar en todo momento.

“La Causa” como se le llamó a este movimiento histórico sin precedentes liderado por él, y el sindicato de la Unión de Campesinos (UFW) lograron mejorar las condiciones de vida de muchos trabajadores pobres y oprimidos. Su amor por Jesucristo lo llevo a profundizar en el conocimiento de su mensaje para seguirlo y vivir con Él y para dar razón de su esperanza a los demás. César Chávez nació en Yuma, el 31 de marzo de 1927 y fue bautizado el 21 de mayo del mismo año en la parroquia de Inmaculada Concepción.

Mass to honor Cesar E. Chávez
March 31, at 7:00 a.m.
Immaculate Conception Church

Between the years 1960 to 1980, a young Mexican American farm worker began the fight for agricultural workers in the state of California. Chavez would march with a banner of an image of Santa Maria de Guadalupe with him at all times.

“La Causa” was a unprecedented historical movement led by Cesar Chavez, and the Union of Campesinos (United Farm Workers) managed to improve the living conditions of many poor and oppressed farmworkers.

His love for Jesus Christ led him to deepen the knowledge of His message to follow and live with Him in order to give reason for his hope to others.

Cesar Chavez was born in Yuma, Az on March 31, 1927 and was baptized on May 21 of the same year at Immaculate Conception Church..
